What Is Saving Faith According to John’s Gospel?

John Hepp, Jr.

In this paper “John” by itself does not refer to the human author but to the Gospel by that name. Bible quotations are from the New International Version but with Christ changed to its equivalent Messiah.

Many Scriptures show that faith is absolutely essential to obtaining eternal life. “For it is by grace you have been saved—through faith…” (Eph. 2:8). Faith focuses on what is somehow invisible and/or future: “Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see” (Heb. 11:1). But is just any faith in God or Christ sufficient? Probably no serious Bible teacher believes that.¹ Most of us assume that there is such a thing as inadequate or misplaced faith, which does not save. Can “saving faith” be distinguished from “non-saving faith”? We will consider how the Gospel of John helps answer that question. For example, it shows that saving faith (a) assents to truth but is more than assent, (b) is not just momentary but persistent.

To begin, it should be noted that John does not use the Greek noun for faith. But it uses the verb for believe (pisteuo) 98 times.² That is far more than any other Bible book. An alternate title for this study could be “Believing According to the Gospel of John.” In this paper faith and believing are treated as synonymous.

In several ways John’s perspectives are different from the other Gospels. It was probably written later than the others and presupposes their existence. John supplements them but does not replace them. We should not conclude that John or any other Gospel is superior to the rest. All of them were written long after Pentecost, when Messiah bestowed the Spirit. They are all Messiah’s teaching through that Spirit, as He promised (see John 16:12–15). His new ekklesia (assembly, church) is their context; God is their author. They cannot basically disagree.

Doctrinal conclusions should be based on careful analysis of all the evidence. Any conclusion is faulty that cannot be harmonized with it all. In this paper I try to present John’s evidence about faith in the categories listed below. Of course, the aspects listed under each category are my own choices. If you disagree, make sure you have solid textual and/or doctrinal reasons for doing so.

A. Ways John Links “Believe” to Its Object See p. 2
B. Equivalents to Believing See p. 3
C. Content of Believing See p. 5
D. Mechanics of Believing See p. 6
E. Effects of Believing See p. 7

Under each category B-E I aim to give each aspect at least at its first occurrence, with later references listed at the same place. Elsewhere in those lists the word “see” refers back to that first occurrence; “cf.” refers to a closely-related aspect. A question mark after a reference indicates doubt whether the reference is appropriate in that category.

¹ Some are so intent on not “contaminating” God’s grace that they hesitate to analyze faith. But at least they specify exactly what must be believed. Most would distinguish faith from religious excitement.
² Why does John use only the verb (believe) and not the noun (faith)? Perhaps in order to emphasize faith’s activity. It is not a commodity to buy or sell—or trust in. As the equivalents show, it is an active response to God.

A. Ways John Links “Believe” to Its Object
Believing is not just a hopeful attitude. It is always directed toward an object—that is, facts or a person or thing that is believed. But after the verb “believe” John does not always state that object. For example, “they could not believe, because…” (12:39). This happens about thirty times (see also 1:7, 51; 3:12, 18b). When John does indicate an object of faith, it uses one of the forms in the following table. These are different forms of Greek syntax with the verb πίστευο. (To further analyze the objects of faith, see section C.)

Observations & Conclusions Re Ways John Links “Believe” to Its Object
1. The references in the last column show my doubts that any of these forms always refers to saving faith.
2. Form 1 uses hoti to introduce the content of what is believed. That object consists of specific facts, often but not always facts essential to saving faith. In other words, form 1 sometimes—but not always—has to do with faith in Messiah.
3. Form 2 uses the preposition eis plus the accusative case to introduce the person believed in. That person is once God, otherwise Messiah. It often attributes eternal life or its equivalent to those who so believe (1:12; 3:16, 36; 6:40; 7:38, 39; 12:46; 14:12). Therefore, some consider it a technical expression for saving faith. But not all who so believed in John 8:30 got saved. Jesus warned them in the next verse (8:31) that they had to “hold to” (continue in) His teaching. Saving faith perseveres.

4. Form 3 normally uses only the dative case to introduce the object of faith. That object is not facts (as with form 1) but entities. These are usually Messiah or His word or works, but can also be such things as Moses or the Scriptures.

B. Equivalents to Believing

Under this category are listed other terms or figures that John pairs with “believe” and/or possibly uses as equivalents to believing. The Bible often refers to such equivalent actions. By describing various aspects of believing, they help to define it. Some are inferred from negative statements. For example, look at 3:36 in the list. In that verse “does not obey” is given as the opposite of “believe.” Therefore, we infer that “obey” is equivalent to believing. Nearly every item in the following list is labeled “a,” “b,” or “c.” Each label indicates a reason for identifying that item as equivalent to believing:

- a. It is used in parallel with faith—as a different aspect of faith rather than a completely distinct action.
- b. It gives results identical to those faith gives.
- c. Its results are equivalent to eternal life.

3 Form 2 introduces “him” or “me,” referring to Messiah (26 times); Messiah’s “name” (3 times); the Son (1 time); other designations for the Son (4 times: 6:29; 9:35; 12:11, 36).

4 Form 3 has as object 10 times a pronoun referring to Messiah (“him” 2 times, “me” 8 times). Scripture is the object 2 times. Several objects are found once each: “him who sent me” (5:24); “the one he sent” (5:38); “Moses” (5:46); “what he [Moses] wrote” (5:47); “what I say” (5:47); “the miracles” (10:38); “this [claim by Jesus]” (11:26); “our message [the message to Israel]” (12:38).

5 Only those can hear whom God draws (8:43, 47; cf. 10:4–5, 27). Thus, hearing and believing are two sides of the same saving response.

- 17:6–8 obeyed Your word (see 8:51–52)
- 21:19, 22? follow Me (see 8:12; but here said to Peter)

Observations & Conclusions Re Equivalents to Believing

1. There are many equivalents to believing. The most common are hearing and keeping His word/words/commands.
2. Although John does not use the terms “repent” or “repentance,” belief includes that concept. This is seen in the nature of some of the equivalents, such as, coming to the light, walking in the light, following Him, continuing in His word, keeping His word (commandments), obeying. These indicate a moral aspect to belief, not just a “change of mind.”
3. The persistence of saving faith is emphasized by the equivalent “remaining”/“abiding” in Him (8:31).

17:10  All I have is Yours, and all You have is Mine.  (cf. 10:38)
19:7  Jesus is the Son of God.

Observations & Conclusions Re Content of Believing
1. New believers rarely know much that is listed here. Little of it is included in the evangelistic sermons summarized in Acts.
2. How much is essential? I have starred two passages that give the same specific teaching, stated two ways. This same teaching is often repeated in the sermons in Acts:
   • 1:41–42 (and often) Jesus is Messiah (that is, Christ = King).
   • 3:18 (see 1:12) Believe in the name of God’s one and only Son.
3. Since we are commanded to make disciples (learners), we expect them to quickly learn and accept the other truths.

D. Mechanics of Believing
Under this category are listed indications of how believing begins and develops.
1:6–8  John the Baptist was sent to bear witness, so that all might believe. (1:15, 26–27, 29–34; 3:27–36; 5:33–36; 10:41–42)
1:14  The Word became flesh…we beheld His glory.
1:18  He made known the God no one can see.
1:43  Jesus found Philip.
1:50  because I said I saw you under the fig tree
2:11  By the first sign He manifested His glory.
2:22  A prediction that His disciples remembered after His resurrection, then believed the Scripture and the word He spoke.
2:23–24  At the Passover many believed in His name, beholding His signs, but He didn’t entrust Himself to them. (3:2; 4:45)
4:50, 55  The man believed (the word).
5:36  His works bear witness (10:37–38; 14:11; 12:37; 14:11)
5:37–39  The Scriptures bear witness. (5:45–47; 8:19)
5:44  Can’t believe if they seek glory from men rather than God. (12:42–43)
5:45–47  If you believed Moses, would believe Me (see 5:37–39)
6:44, 65  No one can come unless the Father draws him.  (cf. 12:32)
6:45  All who hear and learn from the Father come. (8:44, He who is of God hears God’s words; cf. 3:21)
7:17  If willing to do God’s will, will know if the Son’s doctrine is from God.
8:30  As He spoke, many believed. (cf. 8:45–48)
8:37  My word has no place in you.
What Is Saving Faith According to John’s Gospel?

E. Effects of Believing

8:45 Because I speak the truth, you don’t believe Me. (see 8:30)
10:3, 14, 16 His sheep hear the voice of their shepherd and follow him.
12:32 If lifted up, will draw (see 6:44)
12:39–40 They couldn’t believe because God hardened them.
12:42–43 Many rulers believed but didn’t confess Him. (see 5:44)
16:8–9 The Holy Spirit will convict in regard to sin because men do not believe in Me.
17:21, 23 He prays for unity so that the world may believe.
19:35–37 Scripture fulfilled
20:29 Blessed those who didn’t see yet believed.
20:30–31 These signs written that you might believe.

Mechanics of Believing for the Twelve:
1:50 Do you believe because I told you I saw you? 17:2, 6; 18:9 The Father gave them all to the Son, and they kept the Father’s word.
2:11 After Jesus “revealed His glory” at Cana, His disciples believed. 17:25 They know that You have sent Me.
2:22 After His resurrection, they believed because they remembered this prediction. 17:26 Jesus made and makes the Father known in order that the Father’s love and the Son may be in them.
13:19; 14:29 telling you now so that you will believe
14:1 Believe [Trust] in God…also in Me.
16:30–31 They claimed to believe that He came from God. He asked, Do you believe?
20:8, 29 “The other disciple” saw the evidence of Jesus’ resurrection and believed. Thomas saw Jesus and believed.
20:25 Unless I see…and place my finger…I will not believe.

Observations & Conclusions Re Mechanics of Believing
1. Believing is a response to witness (often verbal), such as, that of John the Baptist, the apostles, Jesus Himself, Jesus’ works, the Scriptures.
2. The agreement between Scripture and its fulfillment is convincing.
3. Obstacles to believing include seeking glory from men and being unwilling to do God’s will.
4. For anyone to believe, the Father must draw him (through the Holy Spirit). Those who are not His sheep will not follow Him.
5. Judging from the growth of faith in the disciples, it is a process (not once for all).

E. Effects of Believing

Under this category are listed various results from believing. Those marked * are results of equivalents of believing.
1:12 He gave the right to become God’s children. (1:13, born of God, 3:5, 6, 8—born of the Spirit. Believing is in vv. 11–12, 15–18.)
3:3, 5 see/enter the kingdom of God
3:17 be saved
3:18 not be judged (unbelievers are already judged, 3:19–21)
E. Effects of Believing

6:35 not hunger nor thirst
6:39, 40, 46, 47 Jesus will raise him up on the last day. (11:25)
6:56 abides (remains) in Him
7:38–39 receives the Holy Spirit; rivers of living water
8:12* not walk in darkness but have light (12:46)
8:31* truly be His disciples, know the truth, be made free by truth
8:42* If God were your Father, you would love Me.
8:51–53* will never see death (11:26)
10:3–4*, 9–10*, 15*, 27–29* are protected and cared for by the Shepherd (17:12*)
10:14–15* know the Shepherd as the Shepherd knows the Father
10:27–28* No one can snatch them out of Jesus’ hand or the Father’s hand.
12:36 become sons of light
12:40* heal them
12:44 Who believes in Me believes in the One who sent Me (result or cause?). (13:20*; 14:7*, 9*)
13:10* “A person who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet.”
14:12 Believer will do the same works as Messiah and greater ones.
14:15* Whoever loves Him will keep His commands.
14:21–23* Whoever loves Him will be loved by the Father and the Son, who will disclose Himself. They will come and make their abode.
14:26ff; etc. MUCH MORE ABOUT THE HOLY SPIRIT
15:4–5*, 8*, 16* Whoever remains in Him bears fruit. (16:7–15??)
15:19* Because one is chosen, the world hates him. (persecutes, 16:1–3*, 33*; 17:14*)
17:18* He has sent them into the world. (20:21)

Observations & Conclusions Re Effects of Believing
1. Believing achieves marvelous results: becoming God’s Son, becoming free, being cared for by the Shepherd, bearing fruit, doing mighty works, receiving the Holy Spirit, being raised from death, entering the kingdom, inheriting eternal life.
2. Possibly the Lord emphasized some of these results in order to give assurance to those that saw them. (See 8:31, 42; 14:15.) If so, assurance related to the moment of first believing is reinforced rather than erased.
3. Believers have a mission to the world but are hated by it.
